

Audi Regional Headquarters

by WilkinsonEyre

The sculptural form of the proposed building seeks to create a new visual identity for Audi, the German car manufacturer. The competition winning scheme was developed as the first of a new generation of regional headquarters across the UK for Audi.

The 6,000m² building comprises display, workshops, administration and conference facilities placed in a landscaped setting.

Details

Location: Braehead, UK
Client: Audi UK
Architect: WilkinsonEyre
Structural Engineer: Expedition
Services Engineer: Atelier Ten
Value: £7m